Reliant Energy Restructuring and RRI Spin-off

IPO

Sold approximately 20% of unregulated business, Reliant Resources (RRI), in an IPO in May 2001

Restructure

Will form CenterPoint Energy (CEP) to be new holding company for Reliant Energy and its subsidiaries

Spin-off

Will create two independent companies. Plan to distribute 80% stock interest in RRI to CEP shareholders sometime in the first quarter 2002

IPO of 20% of Reliant Resources

- First trading day May 1, 2001
- 59.8 million total shares of common stock issued to public in the IPO
  - Total net proceeds of $1.694 billion
- 240 million shares of RRI common stock retained by Reliant Energy
- 19.9% public ownership*

* Percent ownership at time of IPO

Formation of the New Holding Company

- New holding company structure approved by shareholder vote on December 17, 2001
- New holding company will be called CenterPoint Energy
- CenterPoint Energy will become the parent company of Reliant Energy
- Being formed as a part of a corporate restructuring designed to meet applicable regulatory requirements in the move to retail electric competition in Texas
- Holding company formation expected to happen in the first quarter of 2002
- Each outstanding share of Reliant Energy common stock (REI) will automatically be converted into one share of CenterPoint Energy common stock (CEP)

Spin-off of Reliant Resources

- Plan to distribute 240 million shares of RRI common stock owned by CEP to CEP shareholders through a stock dividend
  - Number of RRI shares distributed for each CEP share owned will depend on the number of CEP shares outstanding at the time of the separation
    - CEP will own and plans to distribute 240 million shares of RRI
    - Distribution ratio =  $240 \text{ million RRI shares} / (\text{number of CEP shares outstanding})$ = ~0.8 shares of RRI for each share of CEP
    - The ratio is not expected to materially change
  - Dividend policy
    - As a growth-oriented company, Reliant Resources does not pay a dividend and does not plan to pay dividends in the future
    - CenterPoint Energy will continue to pay a dividend
      - Expect dividend to be less than current dividend being paid by Reliant Energy because CEP will be a smaller company once RRI shares are distributed
      - Level of new dividend has not been established, but dividend payout will be comparable to other regulated utilities (somewhere greater than 50% of CEP earnings per share, which are expected to be in the range of $1.17 to $1.22 in 2002)
    - Board of Directors will determine new dividend before the spin-off of RRI
  - Expect to complete spin-off during first quarter of 2002

Example of Share Exchange and Distribution

* Based on distribution ratio calculated using currently outstanding shares of REI (~298 million as of December 1, 2001)

Transformation into Two Companies

The logo for CenterPoint Energy, featuring a blue circle with a white dot inside, followed by the text "CenterPoint Energy" in a bold, sans-serif font.

CenterPoint Energy
Regulated energy delivery businesses

- Electricity transmission and distribution
- Natural gas distribution
- Natural gas pipelines and gathering
- Texas Genco power generation

The logo for Reliant Resources, featuring three red diagonal lines followed by the text "Reliant Resources" in a bold, sans-serif font.

Reliant Resources
Competitive energy services businesses

- Unregulated power generation
- Wholesale energy trading and marketing
- Retail energy services

Reliant Resources' option to purchase these assets in 2004 at fair market price

Distinct Investment Alternatives

Distinct
investment opportunities

Expected to appeal to investors interested in reliable dividend income, lower risk, and consistent growth

Expected to attract growth and value-oriented investors

Distinct
business and market

Will strive to optimize existing assets and capitalize on growth opportunities built around its core businesses resulting from the consolidation and restructuring of the fragmented distribution industry

Will strive to capitalize on unregulated acquisition, development, and commercial opportunities resulting from the deregulating U.S. merchant energy industry, Texas retail position, and Texas Genco option
