

CENTERPOINT ENERGY, INC.

Governance, Environmental and Sustainability Committee

Charter

(Adopted: December 13, 2024)

Purpose: The purposes and responsibilities of the Governance, Environmental and Sustainability Committee of the Board of Directors are to:

- identify individuals qualified to become Board members, consistent with criteria approved by the Board, and recommend for selection by the Board director nominees for election at the next annual meeting of shareholders;
- develop and recommend to the Board the Corporate Governance Guidelines applicable to the Company;
- oversee the evaluation of the Board, its members and its committees; and
- review the Company's practices and initiatives related to sustainability and environmental matters, including matters related to climate change.

The Committee shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board, except as may be prohibited by law, with respect to all matters encompassed by this Charter.

Membership: The Committee shall consist of at least three members. Members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board and may be replaced by the Board. Each member shall meet the independence requirements mandated by the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange.

Meetings and Structure: The Committee shall meet at such times as deemed appropriate by the chairperson of the Committee, any two members of the Committee, the Chair of the Board or the Chief Executive Officer.

The Board shall appoint one member of the Committee as chairperson. The chairperson shall be responsible for preparing the agenda, presiding over the meetings, making subcommittee assignments and coordination of reporting to the Board. In the absence of the chairperson, a majority of the members of the Committee present at a meeting may appoint a member to preside at the meeting.

Authority and Responsibilities: In addition to the responsibilities set forth above, the Committee shall, from time to time as required or when the Committee considers it appropriate:

- Recommend any changes in the number of directors to comprise the Board, subject to the provisions of the Company's charter and bylaws.
- Develop qualification criteria for Board members (in addition to those set forth in the Company's bylaws). Criteria shall include personal and professional integrity, sound judgment, experience, skills, ability and willingness to devote the time and effort necessary to be an effective Board member, and commitment to acting in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. Consideration shall be given to independence and the need for a range among the directors of business experience, diversity of perspective, professional skills, geographic representation and other qualities the Board considers important in light of the Company's business plan.
- Evaluate potential nominees for election to the Board, including directors whose terms are about to expire, consistent with criteria approved by the Board. The extent to which the Committee dedicates time and resources to the consideration of any potential nominee brought to its attention depends on the information available and provided to the Committee about the qualifications of the individual and such individual's suitability in light of the needs of the Board, and is at the Committee's discretion.
- Review and evaluate persons nominated by shareholders to be directors in accordance with the approved director qualification criteria. The Company's bylaws set forth the requirements to be met by a shareholder wishing to nominate a director.
- Recommend to the Board persons to be nominated at each annual meeting of shareholders as well as any directors to be elected by the Board to fill vacancies or newly created directorships between annual meetings.
- Evaluate and recommend to the Board whether to accept a conditional resignation of an incumbent director who does not receive a majority vote in favor of election in an uncontested election.
- Review, in coordination with other committees of the Board as necessary or appropriate, any shareholder proposals submitted for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and make recommendations to the Board regarding the Company's response.

- Develop and make recommendations to the Board for its approval standards and procedures for determining the independence of board members under the requirements of the New York Stock Exchange and applicable law and regulation.
- Conduct a review of the independence of each Board member and director nominee and provide its findings and make recommendations to the Board regarding director independence.
- Conduct a review of and resolve any issues with respect to related party transactions and conflicts of interests involving executive officers or directors of the Company or other "related persons" under the applicable disclosure rules of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").
- Recommend to the Board:
 - membership, including chairpersons, of standing Board committees;
 - responsibilities of each standing committee as set forth in the charters of the respective committees or as otherwise assigned by the Board;
 - whether new committees should be formed and whether existing committees should be continued, redirected or abolished; and
 - measures by which the Board can evaluate the effectiveness of the Board, its members and its committees. The Committee shall oversee annual evaluations pursuant to these measures.
- Review and recommend fee levels and other elements of compensation for outside directors.
- Periodically review and make recommendations to the Board regarding Board processes and policies, including appropriateness of Board agendas and the frequency and location of Board meetings.
- Review and reassess at least annually the adequacy of the Corporate Governance Guidelines of the Company and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

- Review and assess at least annually the adequacy of this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
- Review annually the Committee's own performance.
- Review other issues of corporate governance that may arise.
- Periodically review the Company's programs, practices, initiatives, reporting and strategies relating to environmental and sustainability matters, in coordination with other committees of the Board or the full Board as necessary or appropriate, including as follows:
 - Review with management the significant environmental risks to the Company, including those related to climate change and significant environmental hazards, and the steps taken by management to address them;
 - Monitor current and emerging environmental and sustainability issues, including issues as a result of climate change and significant environmental hazards, that may affect business operations, material financial performance or public image of the Company;
 - Review legislative and regulatory developments, including changes to the SEC's rules and regulations, affecting sustainability disclosures, including disclosures relating to climate change; and
 - Oversee management initiatives relating to the Company's compliance with applicable environmental regulations and culture of environmental stewardship.
- Make regular reports to the Board.
- Perform such other duties and responsibilities as specified by the Board from time to time.

The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees consisting of one or more members when appropriate.

The Committee shall have the sole authority to (i) retain and terminate any compensation consultant engaged to assist in the evaluation of outside director compensation, including sole authority to approve the consultant's fees and other retention terms; (ii) retain and terminate any search firm engaged to assist in identifying director candidates, including sole authority to approve the search firm's fees and other retention terms, and (iii) retain and obtain advice and assistance from independent legal, accounting or other advisors, including sole authority to approve the fees and other retention terms with respect thereto. The Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company or the Company's outside counsel or independent auditors to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of, or advisors to, the Committee.

###